The lodge at this time is in a most prosperous condition, numbering 70 or 80 members; has an excellent hall, is nearly out of debt, and is practicing the grand virtues that form the foundation of its existence.

The facts here given are taken from an address read by Mr. N. G. Gross at the anniversary meeting of the lodge held a year ago, and may therefore be accepted as reliable.

ODD FELLOWSHIP.

History of Alexander Lodge No. 224

The Odd Fellows' lodge, of Cairo, dates its beginning in the winter of 1856-7 when the town numbered less than 1,500 inhabitants. Resident brothers George W. McKenzie, L. G. Faxon, John Austin Abraham Williams, John Greenwood and H. W. Bacon, holding withdrawal cards from their former lodges, applied to the R. W. Grand Lodge of the State for a charter. The charter was granted, and on the 17th day of March 1857, the brothers met in their hall, with D. W. Hannan district deputy G. M. in the chair, Mr. Rashey as V. G. and Messrs. McElroy and Green, as Secretaries, for the purpose of organization. The following officers were then and there elected:

Bro. G. W. McKenzie, N. G.

" John Austin, V. G.

" L. G. Faxon, Secy.

" A. Williams, Treas.

D. G. M. Hannan, assisted by Mount

City and Central brethren installed the officers elect into office on the same evening. From this forth the lodge prospered, increasing alike its membership and the funds in its treasury.

On the 17th day of March, 1858, the first anniversary was celebrated in a very successful and creditable manner. On the 12th of June following, the Mississippi levee yielded to the pressure of the great flood of that year, the waters came pouring in, and by day light on the 18th instant every portion of the city was inundated, and hundreds of men, women and children were rendered homeless, and many of them left destitute circumstances. The members of the lodge sharing in the general disaster. On the 16th of June the lodge met and resolved to divide the funds on hand, (about $600) among the most needy members, and appointed a committee to solicit donations for the relief of all the sufferers by the flood. Withdrawal cards were issued without exacting the payment of dues, and many of the members left the city and remained away permanently. Thus the lodge was greatly reduced alike in membership and finances, but maintained a precarious existence through several years.

On the 14th day of April, 1861, a resolution was offered to surrender the charter and properties of the lodge to the Grand Lodge of the State. The resolution was defeated, however, and a motion carried to expunge it from the record. On a subsequent meeting, in July, the same resolution was again offered, and, there being only a few members present, it was carried, and, in pursuance of it, the charter and effects of the lodge were surrendered.

During 1865 several attempts were made to revive the lodge, or start a new one, but without success. In the summer of 1866 a meeting of all the Odd Fellows of the city was held, having the same object in view, and through influence of the R. W. Grand Secretary Willard, it was agreed that the old lodge should be revived.

On the 8th day of August a dispensation was granted by the M. W. Grand Master of the State to the following members: J. S. Morris, F. Gross, C. M. Oster, Job Joseph McElroy, S. P. McCleary, C. S. Hutchinson, H. E. Goodever, and F. Mahnoff, to revive the old lodge, and the charter, books and papers of the same were restored to them. The lodge was with the assistance of the officers and members of the Mount City lodge, reorganized on the 31st day of October, 1867, D. G. M. Alexander Frater, presiding.

The PARLOR CONCERTS.—The first of a series of Parlor Concerts, for the benefit of the Church of the Redeemer, will be given at the residence of Mr. Charles Galigher this Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock. We should be glad to see these entertainments well patronized. The exercises will be interspersed with select readings, the whole forming an entertainment worth more than the price of admission. As the object is a laudable one, deserving of general encouragement, it is reasonable to expect there will be a respectable turn out. Admissions, 25 cents. Season tickets, admitting two persons to the first 6 concerts, $2.50.

WHAT IS QUILLAYA SAPONARIA?—It is a tree, the bark of a Chilean tree, which yields, when macerated, a fragrant vegetable soap with cleaning and antiseptic properties not possessed by any other vegetable production. The bark is a prominent constituent of the celebrated Soapsuds, the most popular dental preparation ever introduced in America.

THE PEOPLES MEAT MARKET.—C. GAVER & CO., PROPRIETORS.—The meat market just opened by Gaver & Co., at the corner of Washington Avenue and Tenth street, is just exactly such a meat market as those who know Gaver would expect him to establish when he "spreads himself." Everything is new, freshly painted, and wears an air of cleanliness that no one will fail to commend.

Gaver & Co. are among the oldest and most experienced butchers of the country, and have learned that it pays best to keep first class meats, and command a first class custom. If citizens would, therefore, so far as possible, confine their purchases to the Peopple's meat market, they will always find them in any quantity desired at the Peopple's meat market. Just try it.

THE CENTRAL MEAT MARKET.—Messrs. Fred Koehler & Co., of the Central Meat Market, desire it is understood that they keep all kinds of meats, beef, pork, mutton, lamb and veal; that they buy and slaughter the best and fattest animals brought to this market; dress and serve out the meat in a neat and cleanly manner, and deal with everybody fairly and kindly.

SIGHT IS PRICELESS.—Money cannot buy it, but Lazurus and Morris' perfected spectacles will preserve it. No glimmering or wavering of sight, peculiar to others in use. Taber Bros. sole agents for Cairo and vicinity. See advertisement aug 31 d&wlv.

RIVER NEWS.

ARRIVED.

DEPARTURES.

Atington, Columbus, Tyrone, Paducah, City of Alton, St. Louis, Mary Miller, Evansville, Louisville, New Orleans, Elkhorn, Elizabethtown, Elgin, Louisville, St. Joseph, St. Louis, Westfield, West Wisc.

THE weather is again clear and beautiful, although rather cool at night, necessitating fires in stoves and grates and ample covering. The frosts of the past two days will open the hulls of the hickory nuts, and nutting parties will be next in order.

The river has fallen five inches since last report.

The Mississippi continues falling steadily at St. Louis, and unless the Richmond was relieved from her position at Liberty bar by the City of Cairo, it is feared she may be compelled to remain there until the river rises, and may be damaged thereby. We hope to see her this evening.

The Ohio is falling from Pittsburg to Louisville, with 32 inches in the channel at the former city, 26 inches in the chute over the falls, and three feet to Evansville. The rise is not reached Walkers Bar, where only 32 inches water is reported.

Business is again very good at our wharves, and a large amount of freight has been received for shipment.

Four boats have arrived from Evansville since last report, but all of them have returned or proceeded to Memphis, and there is but slight prospect of an Evansville packet leaving here this evening.

The Moline Ragon and Millery are due, however and may arrive in time to return.

The West Wind brought 40 pkgs for Cairo for Saturday.

The Mary Miller reshipped here, 22 lbs. flour, 22 lbs. whiskey, 15 tons steves, hardware and sugar cane mill machinery for points below Memphis.

The Jameson brought 15 lbs. flour for Peter Codd and D. Hund, Cairo, 5 lbs. tobacco, 70 lbs. flour for Redington-Southern.

The St. Joseph discharged 440 bushels Eastern cotton here per Blue Line, and received 40 tons freight for St. Louis and 100 points.

The Tyrone brought out a moderate trip yesterday. She leaves every evening at 4 o'clock for Paducah, in time of the Arkansas.

The Ella Hughes brought 25 lbs. flour for Peter Codd and D. Hund, Cairo, 5 lbs. tobacco, 70 lbs. flour for Redington-Southern.
